

Tributes to Jack

Service & Empowerment

“I’ve never met someone who cared so much for the people around him. Jack always made sure that the people around him could reach their highest potential.”

“Jack was filled with this positive, encouraging spirit. He just wanted you to succeed. It’s rare to have someone in your life that is so positive and motivating.”

“He was someone who genuinely got joy out of helping others.”

“I felt that he believed in me and that I should push myself harder and harder. He was a great teammate, friend, leader, and role model.”

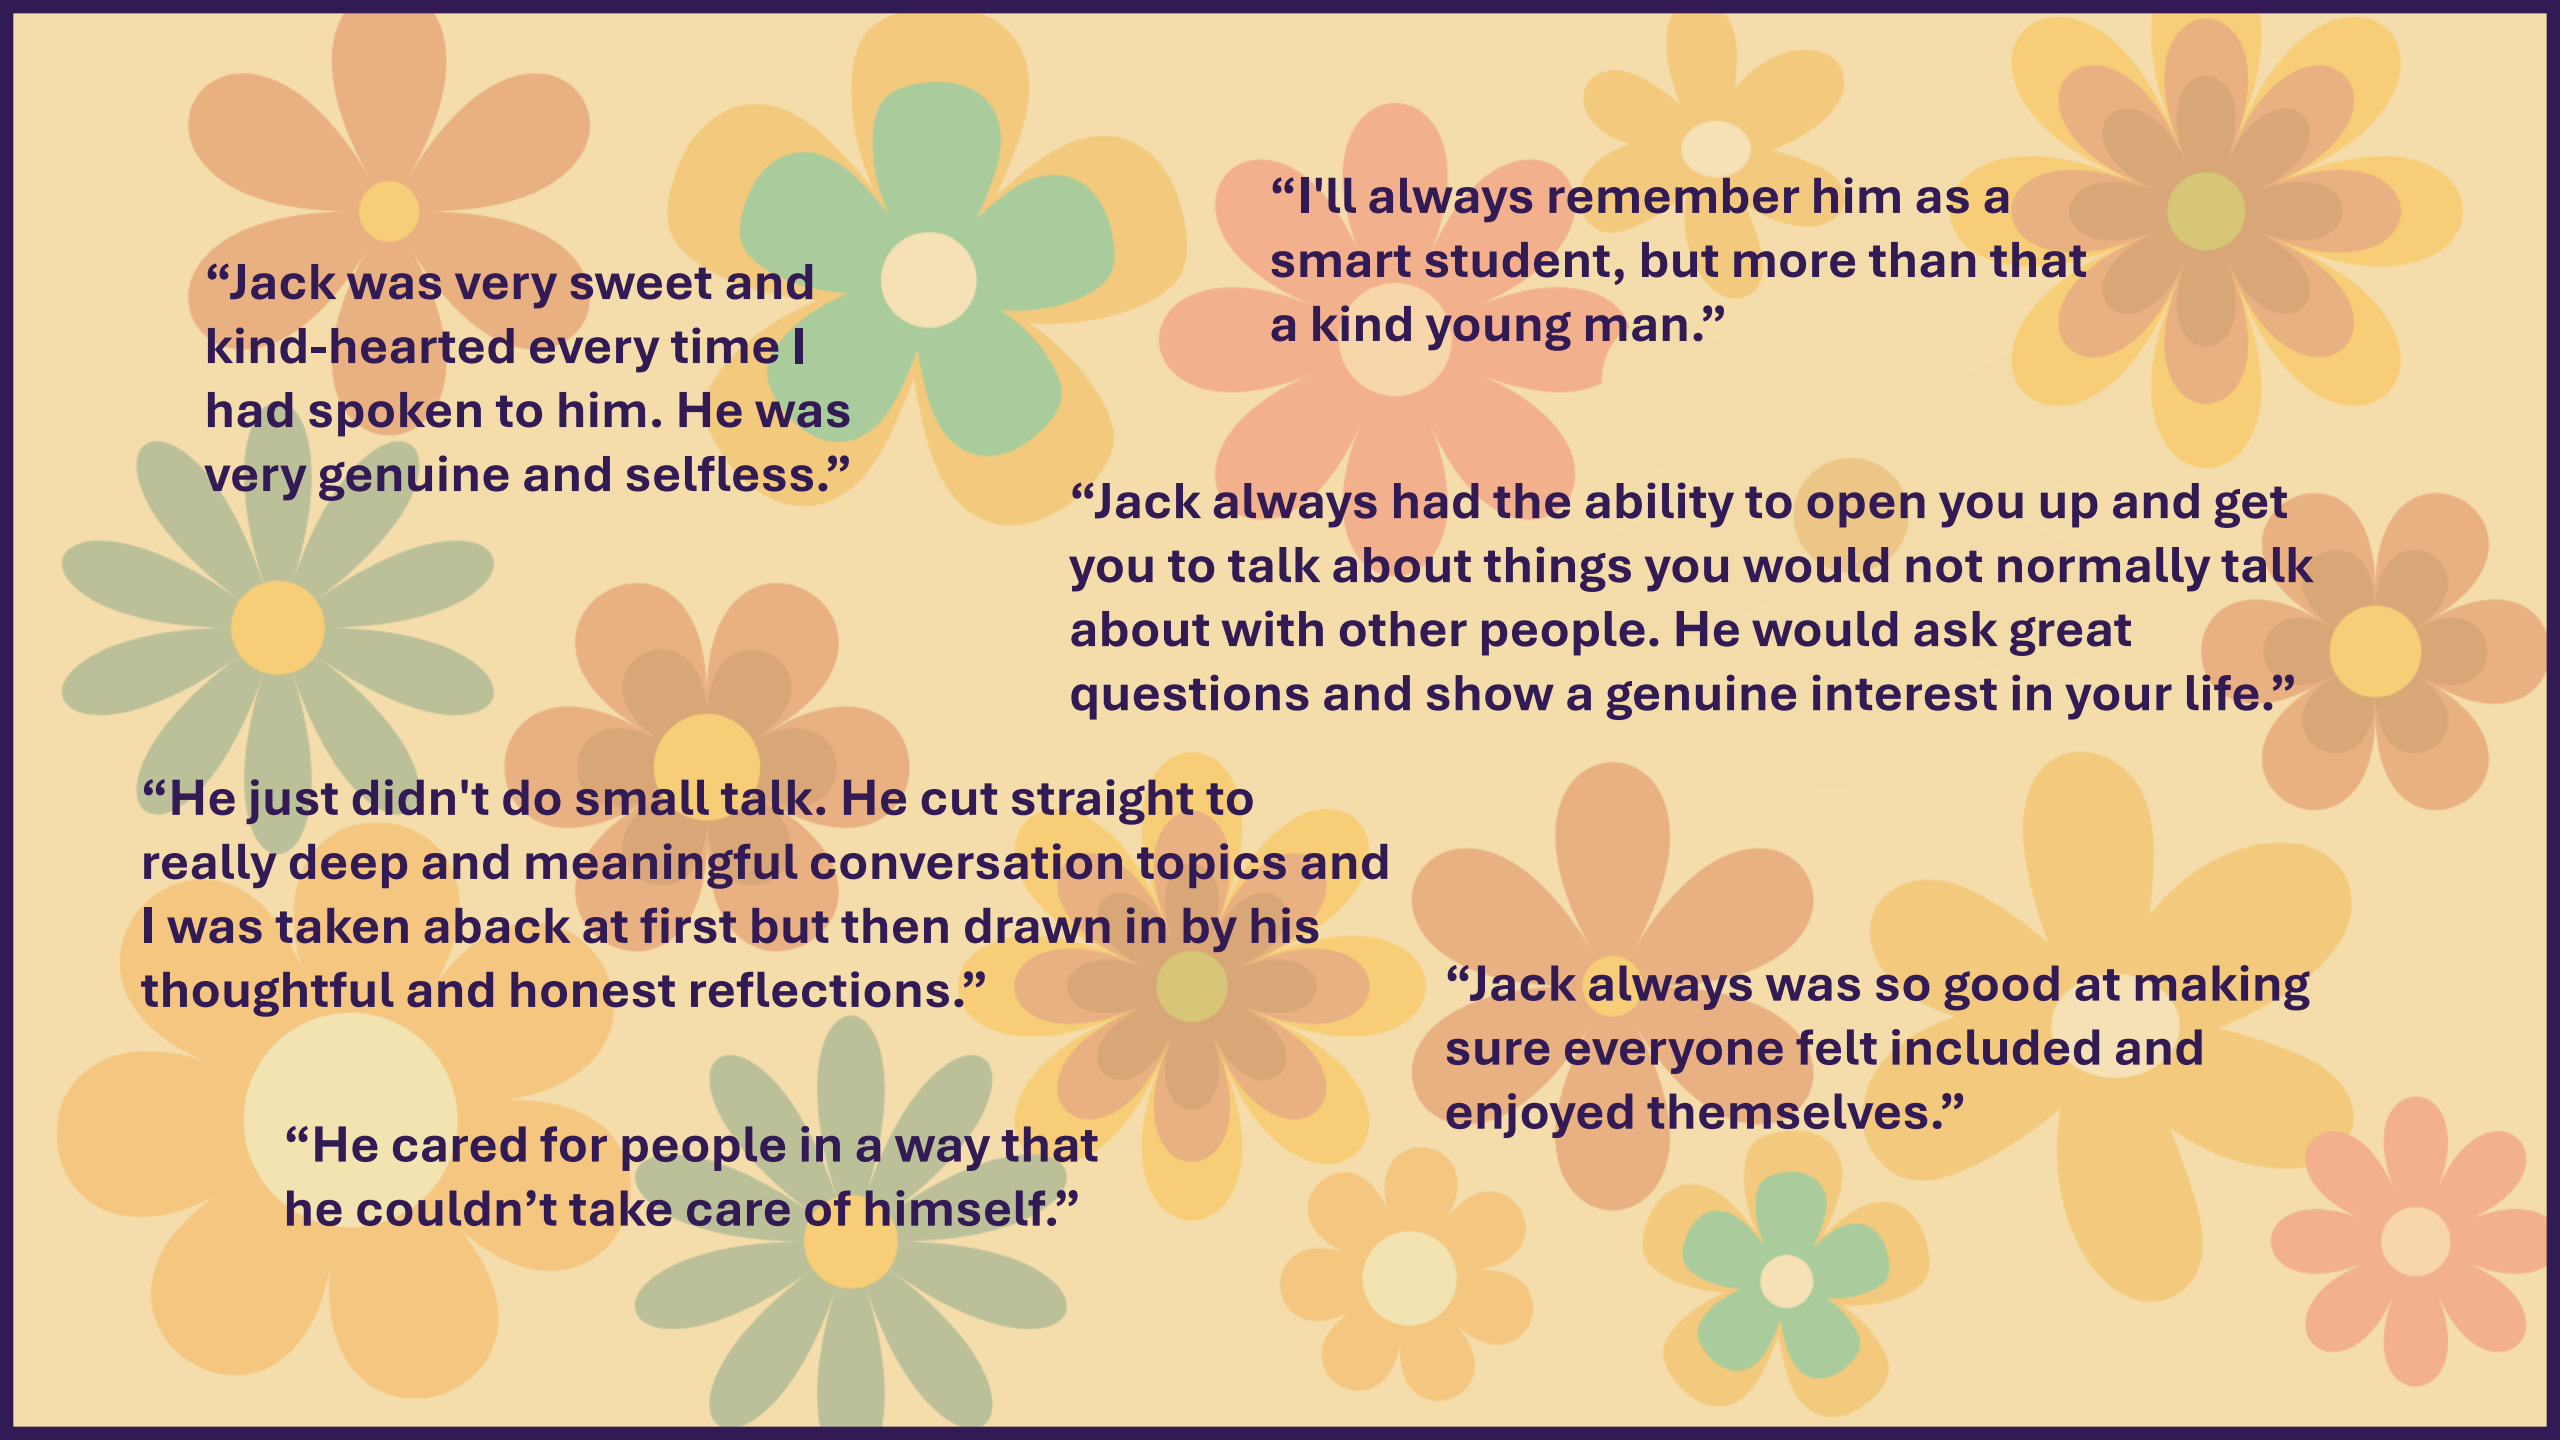

“Someone willing to stand on his own (even if his stance was unpopular) but always willing to help someone else get onto their own two feet.”

“I don’t believe I have met a more altruistic person than Jack.”

“Ready to be of service to anyone at any time without anticipating anything in return.”

kindness
& inclusion

“Jack was very sweet and kind-hearted every time I had spoken to him. He was very genuine and selfless.”

“I'll always remember him as a smart student, but more than that a kind young man.”

“Jack always had the ability to open you up and get you to talk about things you would not normally talk about with other people. He would ask great questions and show a genuine interest in your life.”

“He just didn't do small talk. He cut straight to really deep and meaningful conversation topics and I was taken aback at first but then drawn in by his thoughtful and honest reflections.”

“He cared for people in a way that he couldn't take care of himself.”

“Jack always was so good at making sure everyone felt included and enjoyed themselves.”

Determination
Persistence

“But even after you agree with him one hundred percent he has to kind of keep convincing you.”

“Whenever he decided to do something, he did not just do it, he did it as great as he possibly could. Especially when it came to being a friend.”

“He was such a bright and driven person that I admired very much. His entrepreneurial spirit combined with his drive for social impact is what I will always remember.”

“There was never a dull moment when Jack was around because he was a doer.”

“I’ll always remember the intensity that Jack brought to every day of practice. As Coach Coleman used to say, ‘he brought his lunch box and went to work.’”

“His sense of humor had a way of livening the team and making the hard training days more bearable.”

“He always found a way for practice to never be boring. He would mix into the girls and warm up with them to see if anyone would notice.”

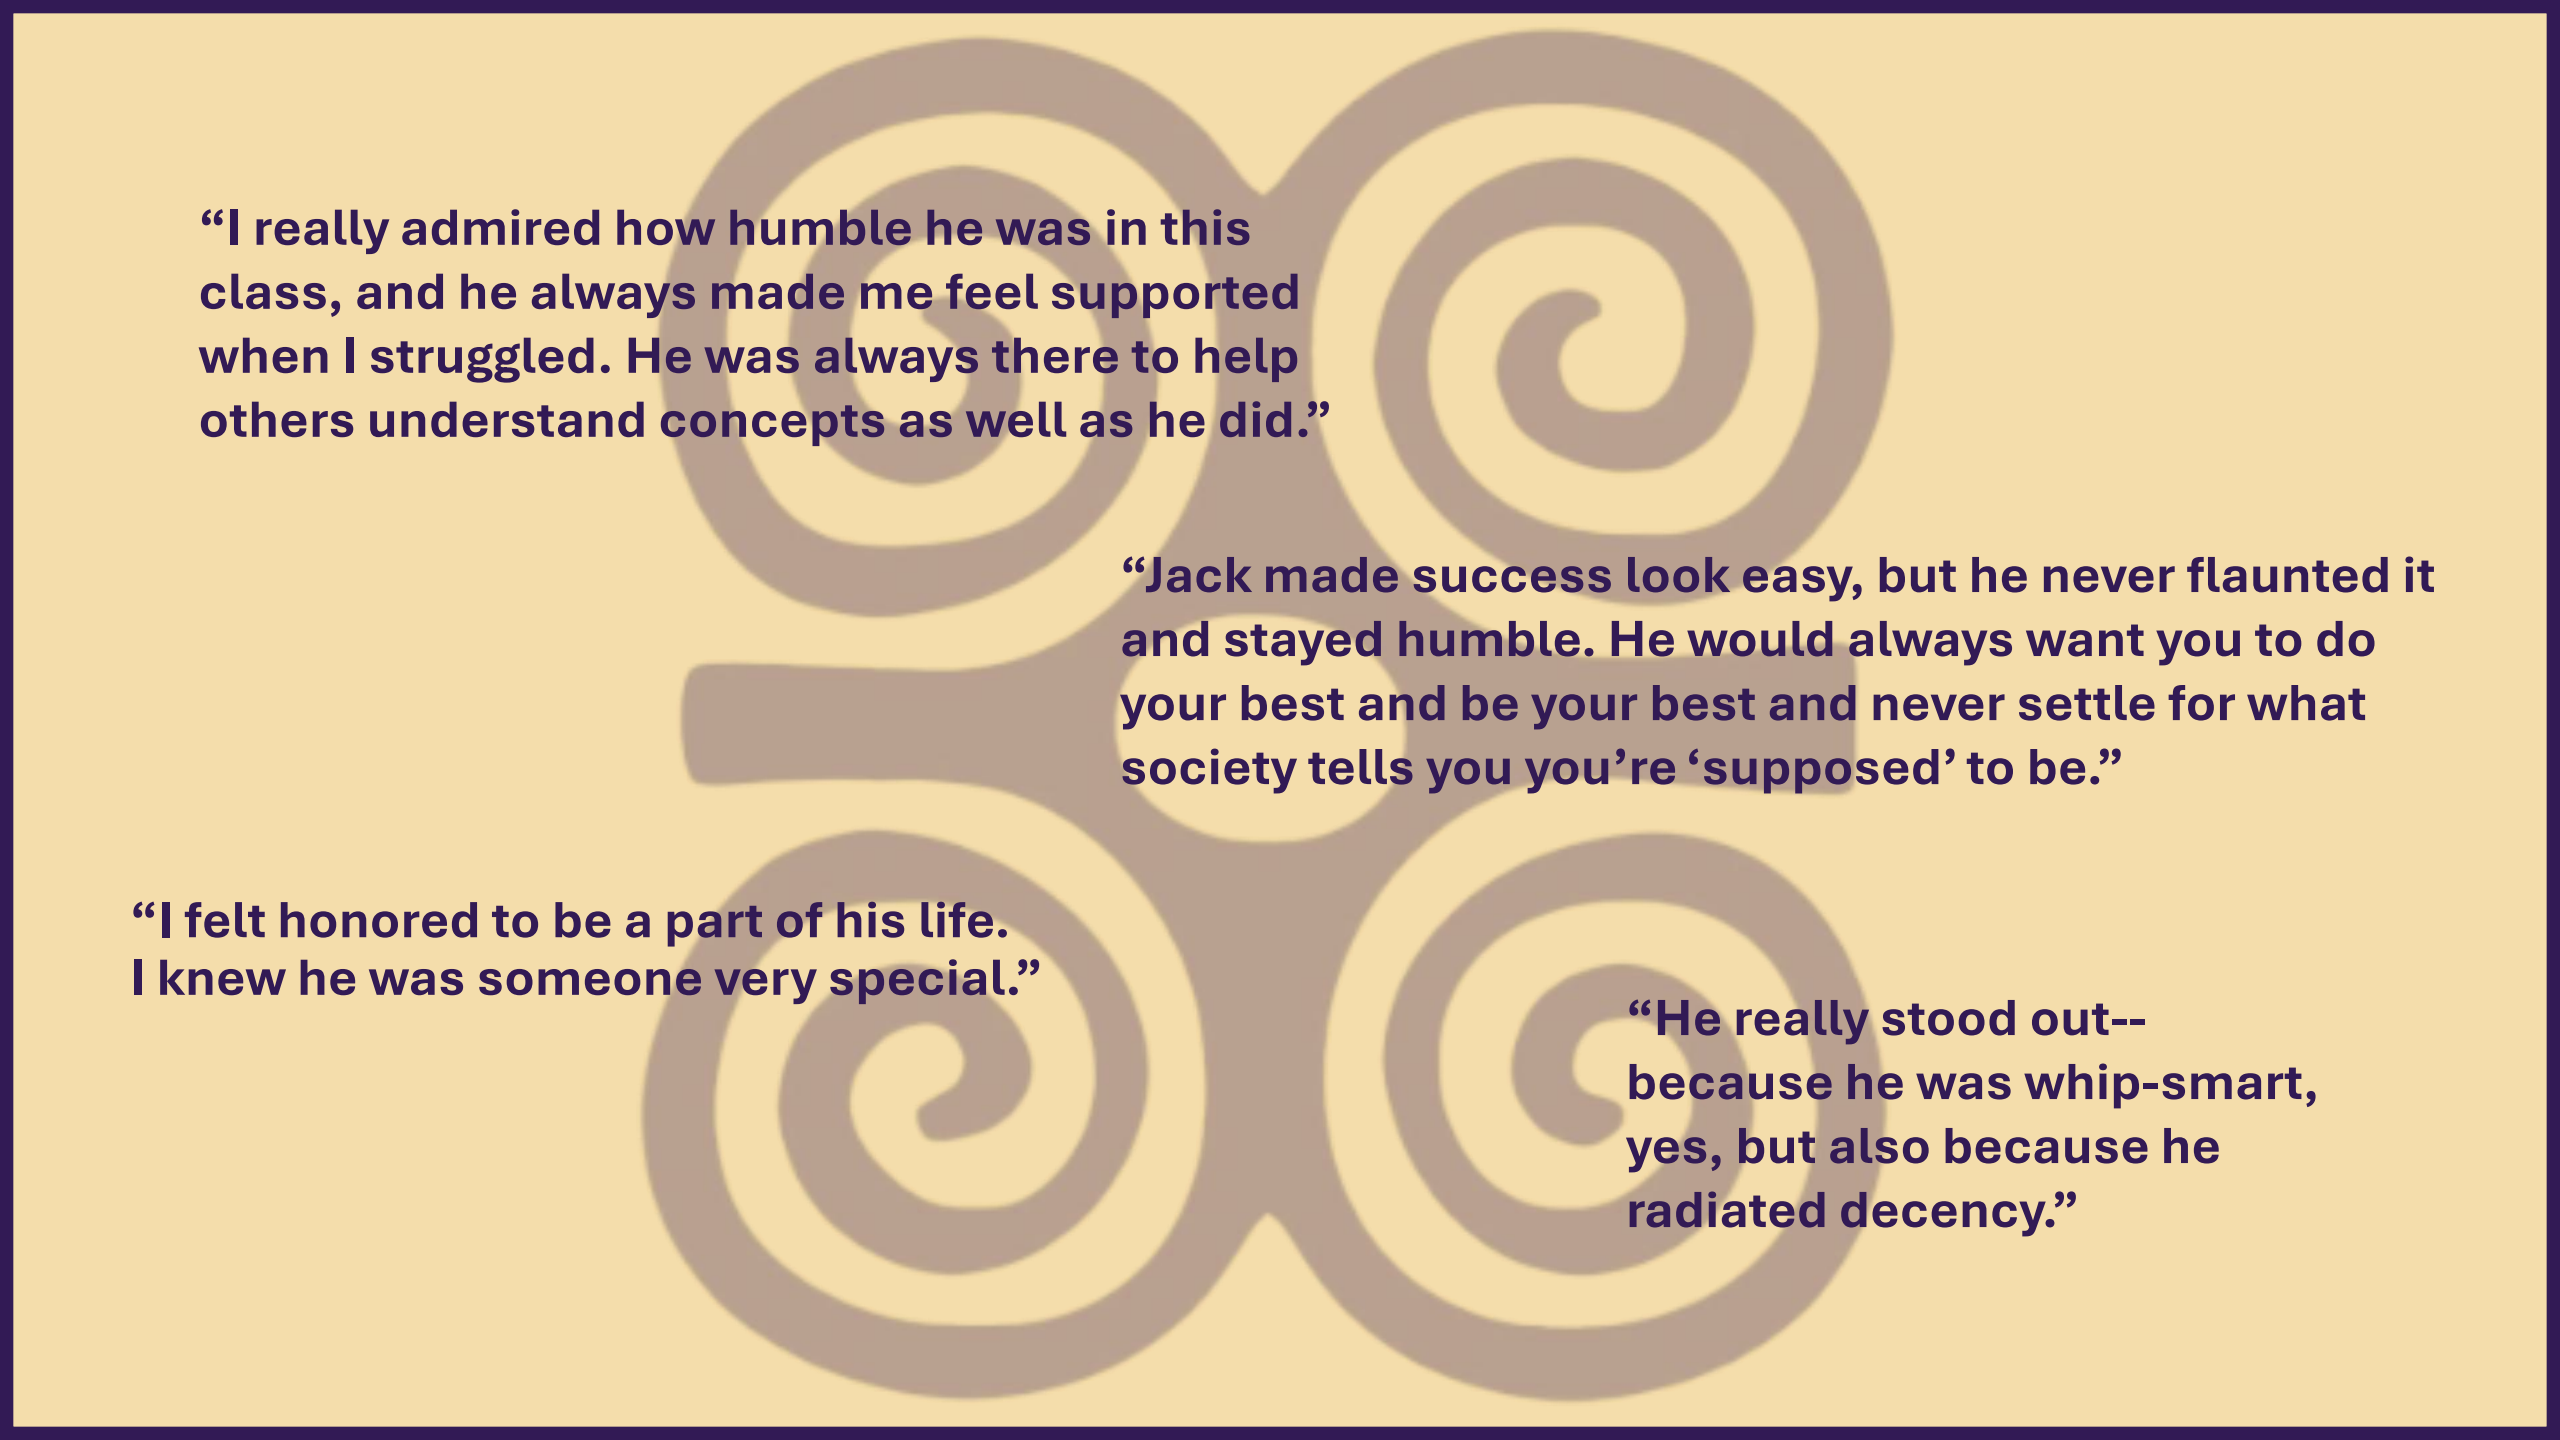

“Every day was different but he always found a way to make everyone laugh. He would make 1 hour runs feel like 10 minutes.”

“Jack would always say the funniest things. He could say ‘hockey stick’ and we would all laugh our heads off.”

HUMILITY

“I really admired how humble he was in this class, and he always made me feel supported when I struggled. He was always there to help others understand concepts as well as he did.”

“Jack made success look easy, but he never flaunted it and stayed humble. He would always want you to do your best and be your best and never settle for what society tells you you’re ‘supposed’ to be.”

“I felt honored to be a part of his life. I knew he was someone very special.”

“He really stood out-- because he was whip-smart, yes, but also because he radiated decency.”
