Roxbury Series To Launch 50th Season

ROXBURY – The most extensive series in Connecticut road racing will launch its 50th season on Saturday, March 7, 8:30 a.m. with a 2.4-mile jaunt that will include a trip up the steep hill Chalybes Road.

The Roxbury Road Runners Club series is offering a $45 season membership or a $10 weekly waiver fee to participate in the 37 events that it will sponsor through Saturday, December 6.

Registration is available through Roxbury Road Runners Club

The registration link also is posted at the Roxbury Races Facebook page. Registration can be completed in paper form before the races at the registration table.

Runners entering the races should utilize the timing chip that they have or secure a chip at the registration table, located in the park pavilion.

Current and former members of the military and current and former first responders can register for free.

Almost all of the races start and finish near the Everett B. Hurlburt Community Park at 18 Apple Lane. All the events are sanctioned by the Roxbury Recreation Commission.

Points will be recorded in the season standings throughout the series. Mike Abraham and Miriam Acevedo were the respective male and female champions in 2025.
