About 40 runners gathered downtown in Columbus Circle Saturday, April 29th, on a beautiful morning to run in the first YMCA SUPER GOAT Run. Runners who ran from Columbus Circle and back to four parks-- Woodland, Lincoln, Burnet and Thornden -- were named "Super Goats," while those who ran to Woodland and Lincoln Parks were dubbed "Nanny Goats." Super Goats ran more than 17 miles; the Nannies ran more than 9 miles.

Dick Charles, one of the Goat Run organizers, congratulates winner John Pyndus of Skaneateles, who ran the 17+ miles in 2:10:53. Dick is a "Mountain Goat" in the YMCA 6:45 am fitness class. This designation goes to class members who run -- on different days -- to the four parks and back to the YMCA. A Super Goat can do the four parks consecutively!
