RACE INFO: Join us Saturday, July 17th for a once in a lifetime race, the Friendship 7 Miler! This event will take place in New Concord Ohio and is meant to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the birth of Astronaut John Glenn. After the race plan to stay and enjoy the afternoon with friends and family as we celebrate John Glenn's 100th Birthday during the three-day John Glenn Centennial Celebration. Directly following the race there will be a

Hometown Parade, free tours of the John and Annie Glenn Museum, NASA Astronaut guest speakers, Food Trucks and so much more! Proceeds raised at this event will support the John Glenn XC and T&F Boosters

RACE COURSE: The race is a point-to-point race. Starting at the Pritchard Laughlin Civic Center in Cambridge, John Glenn's birthplace. It will follow the Glenn Hwy (St. Rt. 40) west finishing in New Concord in front of his boyhood home, now the John and Annie Glenn Museum. The Course is flat and fast and will use one lane of the Highway.
