Tyler Berg was a much loved and courageous little boy. Tyler was eight years old when he was diagnosed with an inoperable brain tumor. Tyler and his family were embraced by everyone who met them. The community rallied around the Berg Family to help offset the staggering costs associated with his illness. Tyler lost his battle with cancer, but his courage and positive attitude will be remembered forever by our family at Applebee's.

During Tyler's life, we were first introduced to Ocean of Love, a local organization that supports families of children with cancer. The organization became near and dear to Applebee's as it worked to help Tyler and his family.
