

THE LATIN GRILLER

The Latin Griller is a family-owned business dedicated to bringing the Puerto Rican street food Flavors to our community.

Founded by Raúl Velázquez, our journey started with a passion for charcoal grilling and a deep connection to family traditions. Growing up, every cherished memory was filled with the aroma of BBQ and smoke.

Our family recipes have been passed down and perfected over time, and with every dish, we bring a taste of tradition, cooked 100% over charcoal for authentic, smoky flavors—just like home.
