We're excited to have you join us for another year of community, energy, and impact. Your participation goes beyond the finish line.

This race supports Partners In Health (PIH), an international nonprofit strengthening health systems in some of the world's most underserved communities. PIH works alongside local governments to provide high-quality, dignified care rooted in the belief that health is a human right.

This Year's Mission: Fighting Tuberculosis in Sierra Leone

All race proceeds directly support PIH's tuberculosis programs in Sierra Leone. TB remains the leading infectious disease killer worldwide, disproportionately affecting low-resource settings. By helping fund early detection, treatment, and prevention services, you are contributing to lifesaving care and breaking cycles of transmission.

Partnering with Berry Nursing Students

Berry College's PIH Engage chapter is partnering with the Nursing Department to support students participating in Global Health Service Immersion Trips to Kenya and Ecuador. These experiences allow students to learn from local clinicians, engage in community-based care, and support long-term health initiatives abroad.

Why This Work Matters

Supporting global health means investing in safer, healthier communities everywhere. Disease crosses borders, and strong health systems protect us all. By running, walking, or cheering today, you are standing in solidarity with both the Berry community and global partners striving for equitable access to care.

Thank you for being part of this mission. Lace up, warm up, and enjoy race day!
