

“I CAN” TRI-ATHLON

FOR KIDS WITH DIFFERENT ABILITIES

WHO: Children ages 4-16 with different abilities; child does NOT have to live in Miami County to participate

WHAT: An adapted triathlon (as much assistance as needed)

WHEN: Sunday, July 26, 2026, from 9:00 to 12:00 (line up begins at 8:45)

WHERE: Run/Walk/Walker/Gait Trainer/Roll – Hobart Arena Parking Lot #1
Bike/Tryke - Hobart Arena Parking Lot #2
Swim - Troy Aquatic Park

Proceeds benefit Miamibucs, a non-profit organization that provides Amtrykes for children and adults with disabilities who live in Miami County

$25 per child - includes a T-shirt*, medal, goodie bag, and family pool party after triathlon

- ★ Participation with assistance is possible for ALL skill levels! Race course is adapted to each participant's abilities.
- ★ In need of a tryke? Contact us at least 2 weeks before the event! We have a limited number of sizes of trial trykes available for use.
- ★ One parent/relative/family friend is required to be with each participant throughout the triathlon. A buddy will be assigned on race day to provide guidance and assist with equipment from the beginning of the race to the finish line. Special volunteers assist all children in the pool (parents do not have to get into the pool).
- ★ Limited to first 60 participants; financial assistance available if needed.

Contact Faye McNerney at 937-335-4013 or miamibucs@gmail.com for further information. Additional information will be provided by email to race participants.
