As part of this year's Red Ribbon Celebration, join us to commemorate the life of DEA Special Agent Enrique "Kiki" Camarena. Red Ribbon Week began after the kidnapping, torture, and brutal murder of DEA Agent Camarena in 1985. Agent Camarena had been working undercover in Guadalajara, Mexico for over four years. His efforts led to a tip that resulted in the discovery of a multimillion dollar narcotics manufacturing operation in Chihuahua, Mexico. In the weeks following the 1985 kidnapping of DEA Special Agent Camarena, the DEA launched Operation Leyenda to investigate the kidnapping. Today, this campaign has become the annual catalyst to show intolerance for drugs in our schools, work places, and communities. Each year, during Red Ribbon Week, more than 80 million young people and adults show their commitment to a healthy, drug-free life by wearing or displaying the Red Ribbon.
