I understand that running or walking in a race is potentially dangerous. I should not enter unless I am mentally able and trained. I assume any risks associated with this event, including but not limited to contact with other participants and the effects of the weather. Refunds will not be accepted including those due to weather cancellations. Having read this waiver and knowing these facts, and in consideration of your accepting my entry, I agree to abide by any direction by officials of the Press Run 5K.
