

Where is the event?

Each event is located at different park in San Antonio for these years events. For race location visit the description of each event. <https://runsignup.com/Race/Events/TX/SanAntonio/sa5ksummerseries>

When is Packet pick up?

Packet pick up will be at the location of each event on the morning of the race day from 6:00Am and 7:00am

What time does the event start?

Kids Race Starts 7:00Am for the free kids 1 mile run (12 and Under only), Immediately following the kids run is the start of our 5k.

Will the course be marked?

All course will be marked with signs on the ground in chalk and turn arounds as well.

Will there be a water stop?

Yes all events have a water stop about half way of the event for you to get some water.

Will this event be timed?

Yes we will have our professional timer IAAP sponsor timing for each one of these events for you to see what you ran for the 5k.

Does this event have age group awards?

Yes we have age group awards in 5 year increments for each event including some gift certificates from our sponsor fleet feet

Will this event have photography?

Yes this event will be sponsored by J&B Photography for you to see the awesome pictures of your race.

Do we get shirts for registering?

You have an option to buy a shirt for each event, each event will have a different color shirt for all of the races. We will have your event shirts at packet pick up.

Do we get finishers medals?

Each race will not have finisher medals, However, if you complete three of our four events you will receive a finishers medallion at the fourth event of our race series.

Who is benefiting from this event?

E-Dragon productions does this community event for multiple reasons; we do it to have an affordable race in the summer, to have a fun competitive event for runners in the summer and we fundraise for the San Antonio Running Scholarship.