South Kitsap Helpline is a non-profit hunger-relief agency serving Port Orchard and surrounding Kitsap County areas. Last year, we helped to provide food to more than 50,000 local children, adults and senior citizens.

In early 2010, Helpline purchased the local Port Orchard Nursery and FINALLY acquired a permanent home for our agency. The down payment was made possible by a generous grant from the Birkenfeld Trust. Our food bank, offices and a small storefront are at 1012 Mitchell Ave SE in Port Orchard, WA. We sell plants, flowers, produce and vegetable starts to the community to help benefit our program. We use the three commercial greenhouses and the large garden at our new home to grow healthy veggies and herbs that are distributed to our food bank clients.

Feedback from food bank clients about the changes our agency has made is overwhelmingly positive. We look forward to incorporating more nutrition education, gardening and cooking classes into our program within the next few years to help our clients gain knowledge and skills that will help them become more self-sufficient and empowered.
