About Levi

Levi Black was an incredible young man who impacted many lives. His love, compassion, and acceptance for others was remarkable. A talented athlete and accomplished wrestler, Levi had a warrior spirit and was well-known as a tenacious competitor. Levi struggled with mental illness, which eventually led to his death in the fall of 2015. This event is designed to remember Levi's life, to raise awareness about childhood mental illness, and to raise funds for "Levi's Legacy," an established fund at the Henry County Community Foundation.
