13.1 mile, Half Marathon, course is a winding loop through Hanover, Pennsylvania. Beginning at the North Hanover Y, runners will pass beautiful farmland and scenic views in the Hershey Heights area. With only one significant hill, the race's total elevation gain is 372 feet. Runners will enjoy a long downhill and cross over into the industrial park ultimately leading them to Hanover's rail trail. The end of the course loops through tree lined streets and ends back at the YMCA.

3.1 mile, 5K course, is a paved loop that is relatively flat and fast. Runners will follow tree-lined streets and also pass through the Hanover High School campus.

Kids Fun Run hosted by David Ross Orthodontics will take place on the newly paved walking/running path on Hanover YMCA property.
