

THE ROUTE: OUT AND BACK

The 5K will start at Salesianum School and extend through Brandywine Park, where runners will encounter a mixed flat and hilly course along the roadways. Once participants reach Wilmington Hospital at S Park Drive and Washington Street, they will turn around toward finish at Salesianum.

ABOUT summercollab's TYLER'S CAMP

Held at the Salesianum School, which generously donates its campus and facilities, Tyler's Camp was founded in memory of Tyler Ritchie Brown. Tyler was the epitome of a modern-day Renaissance man. He explored, tried, succeeded, and sometimes failed, but he never failed to try again. In his spirit, we built this program to increase access to creative arts, performing arts, and athletics programs for low income kids in our city.

The Summer Learning Collaborative's Tyler's Camp offers Delaware's low-income middle-school students a chance to explore new ideas and uncover unknown talents. Campers select from a suite of music, technology, sports and arts opportunities, coupled with daily engagement with leadership development, STEAM-based curriculum, and literacy instruction. In 2017, we offered over 250 campers from across Wilmington four weeks of access to extraordinary summer experiences, all free of charge.

Tyler's legacy and impact continue to grow, as SummerCollab has now established Tyler's Camps in Sussex County, Delaware, and plans to expand the network further across our state and region in coming years. We are honored to continue to our work in Tyler's memory, and thank all of our supporters and partners for their commitment to Tyler's Camps and Delaware's kids.

All proceeds from the race will go to fund the 250 kids who will attend Tyler's Camp.

TYLER HATED RUNNING.

Ever since he was little, Tyler hated to run. As a kid, the sweat made him itch, which he hated. And as he grew up, he was always the last in the pack when he ran with his teammates.

Self-Portrait by Tyler Brown man. He was an artist, musician, wrestler, rugby player, lacrosse player, YMCA camp counselor, student, community servant, and friend to many.

While a full life he lived, there was much unfinished business as Tyler Brown was killed as a passenger in a car crash along U.S. Route 301 near Strawberry Lane, Middletown, DE around 11:30 PM on Friday March 12, 2016 at the age of 17.

Tyler accomplished more in his time than just about anyone many of us know. He was only limited by his imagination, which was limitless. No matter the obstacles he faced, Tyler found a way. Anyone who knew Tyler knew that his passion and determination were unmatched, which could lead to some turbulence at times. However, his greatest gift was his ability to bring people together. Sometimes they were his friends, teammates, relatives, or even complete strangers.

So here we all are, brought together, because a young man dared to dream.
