

Who is Polly?

Polly Robinson lived life to the fullest and never allowed those she cared about to run the race of life alone.

As an educator, and as our school administrator, Polly was always a passionate proponent for doing what is best for students.

She personally came alongside us to encourage and equip us to reach beyond our limitations to our fullest potential and there succeed.

Polly was a friend who cared; a true hero who made an enduring difference in our lives.

Breast cancer took Polly from us in the summer of 2009.

Don't let them run this race alone.
