Meet Day Information:

1:30 Meet packets will be available for pick-up at the Snack Barn.

These include:

- Packet and Bib pick-up on arrival (opens at 1:30)
- Results posting. We will post results for your review at the Finish Line. After the meet you will also be able to find results on athletic.net, playmakers.com and mhcaa.com.
- Appeals: There will be appeal forms at the finish line and should be submitted there. The referee and meet manager will be contacted for review.
- Other questions and concerns should be addressed at the information table first.

- The referee, Rudy Godefroidt, will be available for questions on uniforms and other rules at the information table at the finish line until 2:30. He will be near the starting line for all races.
- Please send the link for the map to your runner's parents or print maps for them as there will be a limited number of maps available.

Emergency Medical Staff will be available. Ice will be available at the finish line.

Awards:

Medals will be presented to the top fifteen finishers on the porch in front of the Cider Mill and Pie Barn. We ask these medalists meet in front of the Pie Barn for staging with D2 awards beginning at 5:15 and D3 following.

Presentation of the championship trophy will follow the presentation of all-region medals to the top 15.

Also, be sure packets for the state qualifying are picked up at that time.

Respect for the Venue Host:

Please remind your athletes the importance of following rules and procedures stated on signs and by event and business staff while at Uncle John's Cider Mill. Likewise, remind them to be mindful of behavior as Uncle John's is a working farm and tourist attraction that will be open during the meet. Finally, please throw trash away in the proper receptacles, especially when cleaning up your tent area.
