- A. President - to preside over meetings, represent the Club before the Road Runners Club of America, Inc. ("RRCA"), call special meetings and appoint committee chairpersons thereof.
- B. Vice President - Operations - to assume the duties and powers of the president in the president's absence, perform special assignments as requested by the president, manage the club's race calendar and serve as contract race coordinator.
- C. Vice President - Communications - to develop and coordinate the club's communication, marketing, promotion and merchandising efforts, and sponsorship program.
- D. Secretary - to record the minutes of meetings, handle correspondence as requested by the president and keep records of such minutes and correspondence.
- E. Treasurer - to administer all financial duties, sign checks and make disbursements for expenditures approved by the Board of Directors, present a budget pursuant to the By-Laws, prepare financial reports requested by the president and prepare or assist in the preparation of all necessary tax filings.

Section 3. Board of Directors

- A. The Board of Directors shall manage the affairs of the Club and establish its policies and procedures.
- B. The Board of Directors shall consist of the five officers and at least five but not more than twenty additional elected Club members who hold no other Club office.
- C. The additional shall be elected to their office on the same ballot and in the same manner as the officers.

Section 4. Term of office for officers and directors shall be two years, beginning the day following the final regular monthly meeting held in an odd-numbered calendar year, also referred to as an "election year". Offices filled upon resignation shall also expire at the conclusion of the final regular meeting in the election year.

Section 5. On or before the September regular club meeting in an election year, the president shall appoint a nominating committee, who, on or before the October regular Club meeting, shall submit the names of one or more candidates for each officer position, and at least 5 candidates for the office of director. At the October regular Club meeting, additional nominations for any office may be made from the floor. The election shall be held on or before the final regular Club meeting in the election year, using paper ballots. Ballots and proxy forms shall be made available at least ten days prior to the election and members may vote in person at the meeting or by their proxy, pursuant to the Club's designated proxy form, given to a member present at the meeting. Write-in candidates for any office are allowed, provided the write-in candidate has give written consent to such candidacy and the consent is presented at the meeting prior to the election. All candidates for office must have demonstrated interest in the Club by having volunteered at a Club event and attended at least one regular Club meeting in the election year. The person receiving the highest number of votes for each office shall be declared elected.

Section 6. Any vacancies in an office shall be filled by vote of the remaining members of the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Officers and directors may succeed themselves.

Section 8. Officers and directors who fail to attend any four successive regular club meetings are automatically removed from office, unless a majority of the remaining Board of Directors votes to retain such officer or director. The secretary shall record any automatic removal in the minutes of the Club meeting.

ARTICLE 5

FINANCES:

Section 1. The Club is a non-profit organization and no part of its net earnings or assets shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, members or other private persons, except that the Club shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its purposes. Dues, entry fees and other monies received by the Club shall be spent entirely for carrying out the purposes of the Club.

Section 2. The Club shall have one or more bank accounts, approved by the Board of Directors, into which all funds received by the Club treasurer shall be deposited. All expenditures paid by the treasurer shall be approved by the Board of Directors, pursuant to the By-Laws.

ARTICLE 6

MEETINGS:

Section 1. The Club shall hold monthly meetings, excluding a month long summer recess, the exact date and time to be determined by the president.

Section 2. The president may call special meetings as deemed necessary, or, upon the request of at least three Directors, the president shall call a special meeting.

Section 3. Unless otherwise provided, all Club business requiring a vote shall be determined by a majority vote if a quorum is present.

Section 4. A quorum exists if at least forty percent of the total number of directors are present. No official votes may be taken unless a quorum is present.

Section 5. If needed, the Club may conduct a board vote via email. For the vote to be legitimate, at least 40% (current quorum %) of the active board must participate in the vote. After the vote is taken, the Club's officers will be required to communicate the voting results to all board members by listing the votes cast by member. All votes conducted via email must pass by unanimous consent of all board members who cast a vote. If the vote fails, the matter can be brought forward to a club board meeting for further consideration. Board member votes may be cast at any time after the original email request for a vote to be done via email. Voting will close 48 hours after the original request.

ARTICLE 7

AMENDMENTS: Amendments to the Constitution and By-Laws may be proposed at any Club meeting if notice of the purpose of the meeting and text of the proposed amendment has been provided to members at least twenty-five days in advance of the meeting. To be effective, amendments must be approved by a two-thirds majority vote of the members present and confirmed by a two-thirds majority vote of the members present at the next succeeding regular Club meeting. Notice shall be given for both meetings in the same manner as prescribed for notice of meetings in the By-Laws. Amendments shall be proposed by a vote of the Board of Directors on its own motion, or on written request of any ten members of the Club.

ARTICLE 8

DISSOLUTION: The Club may be dissolved at any time by the recommendation of the Board of Directors approved in writing by more than two-thirds of the members. Upon dissolution of the Club, all its funds, property and other assets which are not necessary to discharge its legal debts and obligations shall be transferred, as determined by the Board of Directors, to the RRCA to be used exclusively for its charitable purposes as shall at the time qualify as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding section of any future federal revenue code), or to any other organization or organizations which are qualified as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding section of any future federal revenue code) to be used exclusively for the charitable purposes of such organization.

The foregoing Constitution of the Richmond Road Runners Club was adopted on October 11, 2006 by a two-thirds vote of the members present at the meeting and amended on November 8, 2017 by a two-thirds vote of the members present at the meeting.

BY-LAWS OF THE RICHMOND ROAD RUNNERS CLUB
